

Chord back-up for fiddles - Key of G major

Tunes in the key of G: most common chords are the I chord (G major), the IV chord (C major), and the V chord (D major). The vi chord (E minor) is also used but less frequently.

G major chord contains: G, B, D.

Musical notation for G major chord back-up in treble clef, key of G major. The notation shows eight chords across two measures. The notes are: G0D0, G0D3, G2D0, G2D3, D0A1, D3A1, A1E2, and A3E2.

C major chord contains: C, E, G.

Musical notation for C major chord back-up in treble clef, key of G major. The notation shows six chords across two measures. The notes are: G0D1, G3D1, D1A2, D3A2, A2E0, and A2E2.

D major chord contains: D, F#, A.

Musical notation for D major chord back-up in treble clef, key of G major. The notation shows eight chords across two measures. The notes are: G1D0, G1D2, D0A0, D0A3, D2A0, D2A3, A0E1, and A3E1.

E minor chord contains: E, G, B.

Musical notation for E minor chord back-up in treble clef, key of G major. The notation shows seven chords across two measures. The notes are: G0D1, G2D1, G2D3, D1A1, D3A1, A1E0, and A1E2.